RE: Your Performance

Dear Paul,

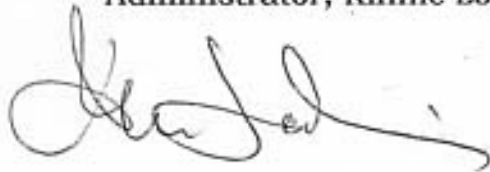

I am writing to thank you for your magic show, which you performed at our company's holiday party. You were a huge hit with our staff. We were looking for something a little different than the usual and you were just what we had hoped for. Your show was very professional and your humor made it even better.

Please feel free to share this letter as a reference. Again, I offer thanks and a recommendation for others to seek out your unique talents.

Sincerely,

Dan Goodier
